- 21.4 Save as provided in Clause [21.3(c)], the Customer will not be entitled to any refund of Charges on termination, and will not be released from any obligation to pay Charges to the Company.

22. General

22.1 Any notice given under the Agreement must be in writing (whether or not described as “written notice” in the Agreement) and must be delivered personally, sent by pre-paid first class post, or email, for the attention of the relevant person, and to the relevant address, or legal@inithost.co.uk given below in the case of the Company or specified on the Order Form in the case of the Customer (or as notified by one party to the other in accordance with this Clause).

The Company
450 Lodge Avenue, Essex, London, RM9 4QS, legal@inithost.co.uk

22.2 A notice will be deemed to have been received at the relevant time set out below (or where such time is not within Business Hours, when Business Hours next begin after the relevant time set out below):

- (a) where the notice is delivered personally, at the time of delivery;
- (b) where the notice is sent by first class post, 48 hours after posting; and
- (c) where the notice is sent by email, at the time of the transmission (providing the sending party retains written evidence of the transmission).

22.3 No breach of any provision of the Agreement will be waived except with the express written consent of the party not in breach.

22.4 If a Clause of the Agreement is determined by any court or other competent authority to be unlawful and/or unenforceable, the other Clauses of the Agreement will continue in effect. If any unlawful and/or unenforceable Clause would be lawful or enforceable if part of it were deleted, that part will be deemed to be deleted, and the rest of the Clause will continue in effect (unless that would contradict the clear intention of the parties, in which case the entirety of the relevant Clause will be deemed to be deleted).

22.5 Nothing in the Agreement will constitute a partnership, agency relationship or contract of employment between the parties.

22.6 The Agreement may not be varied except by a written document signed by or on behalf of each of the parties.

22.7 The Company may freely assign its rights and obligations under the Agreement without the Customer’s consent. Save as expressly provided in this Clause or elsewhere in the Agreement, neither party may without the prior written consent of the other party assign, transfer, charge, license or otherwise dispose of or deal in the Agreement or any rights or obligations under the Agreement.

22.8 The Company may subcontract any of its obligations under the Agreement to any third party.

22.9 Each party agrees to execute (and arrange for the execution of) any documents and do (and arrange for the doing of) any things reasonably within that party’s power, which are necessary to enable the parties to exercise their rights and fulfil their obligations under the Agreement.

22.10 The Agreement is made for the benefit of the parties, and is not intended to benefit any third party or be enforceable by any third party. The rights of the parties to terminate, rescind, or agree any amendment, waiver, variation or settlement under or relating to the Agreement are not subject to the consent of any third party.

22.11 The Agreement constitutes the entire agreement and understanding of the parties in relation to the subject matter of the Agreement, and supersedes all previous agreements, arrangements and understandings between the parties relating to the subject matter of the Agreement. Subject to Clause [17.1], each party acknowledges that no representations or promises not expressly contained in the Agreement have been made by or on behalf of the other party.

22.12 The Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of [England and Wales]; and the courts of [England] will have exclusive jurisdiction to adjudicate any dispute arising under or in connection with the Agreement.
